

Multimedia

Combining text, audio and visual information to create different digital content using a combination of software and technology.

Digital Citizenship

The skills and knowledge to use technology safely, responsibly and respectfully.

Computational Thinking

The process of taking a problem, breaking it down into simple steps and designing algorithms to solve it.

